

SENIOR QA ASSOCIATE (GCP)

TMQA is an international Quality Assurance consultancy company with headquarters in Scotland and Slovakia. We are seeking an experienced GCP auditor to join our expanding team. This is an office-based position in either Edinburgh, Scotland or Bratislava, Slovakia but home-based position will be considered for suitably-experienced candidates. You must be willing to travel independently, normally within Europe and occasionally further afield. The ability to work in a small company environment with minimal supervision is required.

Job Description

The successful candidate will be required to:

- Plan, prepare, conduct and report audits of clinical trials on medicinal products (e.g., investigator site audits, vendor audits, trial master file audits, systems audits, documentation audits)
- Handle client enquiries through to execution of contract
- Contribute to continual company process improvements through, e.g., sharing of knowledge, peer reviews, delivery of informal internal training and co-audits.

Candidates must have:

- A degree (or equivalent) in life sciences or a related subject
- Excellent English language skills (written and oral)
- Minimum two years' solo GCP auditing experience which must include investigator site audits
- Sound knowledge of regulatory requirements concerning the conduct of clinical trials
- Good attention to detail
- Experience of auditing across Europe

The following are desirable:

- Experience of performing audits outside Europe
- Experience of performing the following audit types:
 - Vendor audits (e.g., full-service CROs, archive facilities, drug distribution facilities)
 - Trial Master Files
 - Documentation (e.g. Clinical Study Reports, Investigator Brochures, Marketing Authorisation Applications)
- Knowledge of electronic systems (e.g. eTMF, eCRF, IVRS).

TMQA is committed to career development for QA professionals whilst maintaining a good work/life balance. This is an excellent opportunity for enthusiastic QA professionals to join a friendly team with an international reputation.
